1. Login in Eustis.
2. Use telnet that is a simple program to help you to build tcp connection. Use port no 25. Use department server to connect – longwood.eecs.ucf.edu.
3. Use helo command to see from which domain you are sending the mail from. Basically build the communication with the server.
4. Mail from command that set from which domain the mail is coming from. Put a existing domain. Though it doesn't check if you really have an existing id in this domain or not.
5. rept to command that et the recipient address. We can use multiple recipient.
6. Data command to enter the body of mail including from, to and subject.
7. A (.) indicate that data part is end.
8. Quit command to leave the session.